Faculty of all disciplines are invited to one or all of a series of short workshops focused on different funding opportunities and agencies.

Monday, April 13th:

8:30 am - 10:00 am: Writing a Proposal to the NSF CAREER Program
Registration: goo.gl/57AH0k

10:30 am - 12:00 pm: Writing Proposals to the Department of Education and Institute for Education Sciences
Registration: goo.gl/58EoMM

1:00 pm - 2:30 pm: Writing Proposals to the Department of Defense
Registration: goo.gl/gZGbtd

Tuesday, April 14th:

8:30 am - 10:00 am: Writing Proposals to the Department of Energy and National Labs
Registration: goo.gl/ FBcjH9

10:30 am - 12:00 pm: Pursuing Funding Opportunities through Corporate and Foundation Sources
Registration: goo.gl/P7Vv1J

1:00 pm - 2:30 pm: Pursuing Funding in the Humanities and Humanities - Related Social Sciences
Registration: goo.gl/F6e7AJ

Ms. Deckard worked in research development at Texas A&M University for 8 years, most recently serving as Associate Director of the university’s Office of Proposal Development. She has helped to develop and write successful proposals to NSF, NIH, the Department of Education, the Department of Defense, and other agencies and foundations, including proposals for large institutional and center-level grants. In addition, she directed the university’s New Faculty Initiative, working with new faculty to jump start their research by helping them to identify funding opportunities, develop a strategy for pursuing funding, understand funding agencies, and learn how to write competitive proposals.

A limited number of 1/2 hour individual consultations with Lucy Deckard are available to workshop registrants from 2:45 - 5:15 pm each day of the workshop series.