Cibolo Preserve Research Terms and Conditions

While at Cibolo Preserve (CP), UTSA researchers, agree to the following terms and conditions:

1. Only conduct research approved by the University and Cibolo Preserve

2. To submit to the Vice President for Research a written report on Research Project results within sixty (60) days of completion of the Project.

3. To coordinate Projects with CP on-site staff to minimize impacts on ecological or facilities management.

4. To require myself as PI, and all Co-PIs, faculty, staff and students conducting or participating in a research projects at Cibolo Preserve to sign a written agreement that they know, understand and will abide by the Standards for University Use of the Cibolo Preserve.

5. To require myself as PI, and all Co-PIs, faculty, staff and students conducting or participating in Projects at Cibolo Preserve to sign a written agreement that they know, understand and will abide by the Operating Procedures.

6. Acknowledge use of Cibolo Preserve in research and Cibolo Preserve Foundation’s contribution to planning and management efforts of research in all relevant journals or other publications.

7. I have read and understand that I must do a project baseline inventory and I have read the baseline inventory and monitoring procedures and may modify it based on needs and objectives of the project.

In order to conduct research at the Cibolo Preserve,
I___________________________(print name) have read and agree to the above Cibolo Preserve Research Terms and Conditions.

Signature: ________________________________ Date: _______________________
Researcher/Principal Investigator

RETURN TO: The Office of the Asst VP for R&D