With your help and the help of the BLOOM software, USAID aims to raise awareness about the challenges of global illiteracy through engaging U.S. universities, colleges, and communities and harnessing their respective strengths and talents in the production of children’s books. Individuals and organizations alike can join a global effort by participating at events planned and executed by student and community leaders in close partnership with USAID.

A networking lunch will follow from 12:00-1:00 PM. Lunch will be provided.

Join us for a tour of La Plaza De Lectura from 1:00-1:30 PM
