Write Winning NSF CAREER Award Proposals

Wednesday, August 24, 2016 | 8:30 A.M. - 12:00 P.M.
John Peace Library, Assembly Room (JPL 4.04.22)

This one-day workshop will focus on how to develop and write a successful proposal to the NSF CAREER program. In the morning, we will cover the basics of the CAREER program and planning a CAREER project. In the afternoon, those intending to submit or re-submit in 12 to 24 months can learn about strategies in writing a compelling CAREER proposal and how to interpret and respond to peer reviews.

Dr. John D. Robertson received his Ph.D. from The University of Texas at Austin in pharmacology and toxicology in 1999. From 1999-2003, he was a postdoctoral research fellow at the Karolinska Institute in Stockholm, Sweden. He was subsequently hired in 2004 by the University of Kansas Medical Center in Kansas City, KS, where he was a faculty member in the Department of Pharmacology, Toxicology & Therapeutics for seven years, and an associate member of the University of Kansas Cancer Center for six years. In 2010, he was recruited to teach grantsmanship by Grant Writers’ Seminars and Workshops.

Dr. Robertson has been the recipient of competitive extramural funding from both the NIH and non-federal sources. He has authored 30 peer-reviewed journal articles and three book chapters. He has been a member of grant review panels, a reviewer for a number of biomedical journals, and served on editorial boards. In addition, he has been routinely recognized for excellence in teaching.
