

Limited Submissions Announcement

A limited submission opportunity is available from the Pew Charitable Trusts and has been posted to the UTSA Limited Submission Opportunities webpage.

Pew Biomedical Scholars Program Overview

The Pew Scholars Program in the Biomedical Sciences provides funding to young investigators of outstanding promise in science relevant to the advancement of human health. The program makes grants to selected academic institutions to support the independent research of outstanding individuals who are in their first few years of their appointment at the assistant professor level.

Eligibility

- Candidates must have been awarded a doctorate in biomedical sciences, medicine or a related field.
- As of Oct. 15, 2018, nominees must hold full-time appointments at the rank of assistant professor. (Appointments such as Research Assistant Professor, Adjunct Assistant Professor, Assistant Professor Research Track, Visiting Professor or Instructor are not eligible.)
- On June 29, 2018, candidates must have been in such an appointment for less than three years (not appointed before June 29, 2015), whether or not such an appointment was on a tenure track. Time spent in clinical internships, residencies, or in work toward board certification does not count as part of this three-year limit.
- Candidates may be nominated by their institution two times in total. ALL applicants must be nominated by their institution and must complete the 2019 online application.
- If an applicant's university has more than one eligible nominating institution or campus, that applicant may only apply from one institution; they may not reapply in a subsequent year from a different one.

Application Limit

One nomination will be invited from each of the participating institutions.

Award Amount

The current grant level is $300,000; $75,000 per year for a four-year period.

Nomination Instructions

See the attached Internal Proposal Instructions for this application. These instructions supersede the standard limited submissions application instructions.
