A limited submission opportunity is available from the National Endowment for the Humanities and has been posted to the UTSA Limited Submission Opportunities webpage.

NEH Summer Stipends Program Overview

Summer Stipends support individuals pursuing advanced research that is of value to humanities scholars, general audiences, or both.

Eligible projects usually result in articles, monographs, books, digital materials and publications, archaeological site reports, translations, or editions. Projects must not result solely in the collection of data; instead, they must also incorporate analysis and interpretation.

Summer Stipends support continuous full-time work on a humanities project for a period of two consecutive months. Summer Stipends support projects at any stage of development.

Eligibility

The Summer Stipends program accepts applications from individual researchers, teachers, and scholars, whether they have an institutional affiliation or not.

- Applicants with college or university affiliations must, however, be nominated by their institutions.
- All applicants must have completed their formal education by the application deadline. While applicants need not have advanced degrees, individuals currently enrolled in a degree-granting program are ineligible to apply.
- U.S. citizens, whether they reside inside or outside the United States, are eligible to apply. Foreign nationals who have been living in the United States or its jurisdictions for at least the three years immediately preceding the application deadline are also eligible.

Application Limit

Each college and university may nominate two faculty members. Any faculty member is eligible for nomination.

Award Amount

Summer Stipends provide $6,000 for two consecutive months of research and writing.

Cost Share Requirement

NEH Summer Stipends are awarded to individuals, not to institutions. They do not require cost sharing and do not include indirect costs.
