A limited submission opportunity is available from the National Endowment for the Humanities and has been posted to the UTSA Limited Submission Opportunities webpage.

NEH Summer Stipends Program Overview

The National Endowment for the Humanities' Summer Stipends program aims to stimulate new research in the humanities and its publication. The program works to accomplish this goal by:

- Providing small awards to individuals pursuing advanced research that is of value to humanities scholars, general audiences, or both
- Supporting projects at any stage of development, but especially early-stage research and late-stage writing in which small awards are most effective
- Furthering the NEH's commitment to diversity and inclusion in the humanities by encouraging applications from independent scholars and faculty at Hispanic Serving Institutions, Historically Black Colleges and Universities, Tribal Colleges and Universities, and community colleges

Summer Stipends support continuous full-time work on a humanities project for a period of two consecutive months. NEH funds may support recipients' compensation, travel, and other costs related to the proposed scholarly research.

Eligible projects usually result in articles, monographs, books, digital materials and publications, archaeological site reports, translations, or editions. Projects must not result solely in the collection of data; instead, they must also incorporate analysis and interpretation.

Eligibility

- Applicants with college or university affiliations must be nominated by their institutions.
- Non-tenure-track faculty, adjunct faculty, staff, retired faculty, community college faculty, and independent scholars are exempt from the faculty nomination requirement.
- U.S. citizens OR Foreign nationals who have been living in the United States or its jurisdictions for at least the three years immediately preceding the application deadline.

Application Limit

Each institution may nominate two faculty members.

Award Amount

$6,000 for two consecutive months.

Cost Share Requirement

NEH Summer Stipends are awarded to individuals, not to institutions. They do not require cost sharing and do not include indirect costs.
